Carson Valley History:

The Carson Valley has a rich historical heritage dating back to the 1850s, when it became one of the favored stopping places for immigrants in wagons and on horseback. Today, you can travel back in time by visiting any of the local historic sites or taking some of the tours. For a self-guided tour map, contact the Carson Valley Chamber of Commerce & Visitors Authority.

Gardnerville:

In 1879, the Gardnerville Hotel, blacksmith shop and a saloon were built along the new road running north and south (Highway 395). Here in the center of the hay and grain-producing community, Gardnerville was born. Gardnerville is named after John M. Gardner whose homestead dated from 1861. Following are just a few highlights:

- Carson Valley Museum & Cultural Center

1477 Hwy 395, Gardnerville 775-782-2555

Built in 1915 as Douglas County's high school. Today it is a museum and cultural center with exhibits related to the history and heritage of Carson Valley. Gifts shop, art gallery, rest area with picnic tables, and public restrooms.

- Carson Valley Hospital

1466 Hwy 395 (Logan Building)

The elegant brick Victorian was built in 1914 as a hospital for by Dr. Hawkins. Later it became a boarding house and private residence. Today tenants report that a friendly ghost resides here.

Genoa:

Genoa, the oldest town in Nevada, was settled by John Reese in 1851.

- Courthouse Museum in Genoa

2304 Main St., Genoa 775-782-4325

Built in 1865 and rebuilt in 1910. After the county seat was moved to Minden in 1916, it became a school house. Today it is a museum with many displays that reflect the history and heritage of the area.

- Mormon Station State Park

2295 Main St., Genoa 775-782-2590

A replica of the original trading post and fort built on the site in 1851 by John Reese. Picnic tables and public restrooms.

- Genoa Community Church

182 Nixon St, Genoa

The present structure was built to replace the church that was lost in the fire of 1910.

- Genoa Town Office, Visitors Center and Old Town Fire House (Town Hall/Raycraft Dance Hall)

On Main St., between Carson St. & Mill St., Genoa

Built by the Raycraft brothers in 1886 for a dance hall. Today it is a community center.

- Genoa Bar/Livingston's Exchange

Main St. and Mill Street, Genoa

Nevada's oldest thirst parlor, dating from the 1850s. Built by J. A. Livingston as Livingston's Exchange. You can still get a tall cool one at the bar today!

Jacks Valley:

In 1853, R.T. Hawkins filed the first land claim in this small valley just north of Genoa. A small community grew around the claim. In the 1860s it was a stop on the Pony Express Trail.

Minden:

H. F. Dangberg, founder of Dangberg Land and Livestock Company, established Minden in 1905 to provide terminal facilities for the Virginia & Truckee Railroad. Minden is named after a German town near Dangberg's birth place.

▪ Douglas County Courthouse

8th Street and Esmeralda St., Minden

The Nevada Legislature voted to move the county seat to Minden in 1916. The courthouse was designed by F. J. DeLongchamps and built on a lot deeded from Dangberg Land Company.

▪ Minden Inn

Esmeralda St. & 4th Street, Minden

Currently the Douglas County Offices, the building was designed by F. J. DeLongchamps in 1917.

▪ Minden Park

Esmeralda St. & 6th Street, Minden

Built in 1906, the park became the "town square" for the first residential section of Minden. Picnic tables and public restrooms.

Topaz:

Located south of Gardnerville on the Nevada-California border, Topaz Lake was created to provide irrigation for farmers in the Wellington and Smith Valley area and has evolved into a recreation area for boating, fishing and water skiing.

Other sites of interest:

▪ Pony Express Trail & Emigrant Trail

When you are traveling down Jacks Valley and Foothill Roads, you are following the old Carson Branch of the Emigrant Trail and the historic Pony Express Trail. Settlers who made their homes in Carson County, Utah Territory, used this same route to enter the valley.

“History is the witness that testifies to the passing of time; it illumines reality, vitalizes memory, provides guidance in daily life and brings us tidings of antiquity.”

— Marcus Tullius Cicero (106 BC - 43 BC)
